ORDER SETTING STATUS CONFERENCE

16

17   The Court ordered Defendant R&L Carriers, Inc.'s Counsel to show cause why sanctions

18   should not be imposed against them for their failure to appear at the March 10, 2022 status conference.

19   (Doc. No. 46.) In the order to show cause, the Court directed Defendant R&L's Counsel to also

20   indicate in their response whether R&L will be participating in the mediation scheduled for April 7,

21   2022. (Id. at 2.) Defendant R&L's Counsel responded with an explanation for their failure to appear

22   at the March 10, 2022 status conference, but failed to indicate in their response whether R&L will be

23   participating in the mediation scheduled for April 7, 2022. (See Doc. No. 49.) Accordingly, the Court

24   partially discharged the order to show cause and ordered that Defendant R&L's Counsel inform the 25   Court whether R&L will be participating in the mediation scheduled for April 7, 2022. (Doc. No. 50.)

26   Defendant R&L's Counsel responded, stating that R&L is willing to participate in mediation of this

27   matter, but given the unavailability of R&L on April 7, 2022, Defendant Midas Solutions Incorporated

28   agreed to continue the mediation date. (Doc. No. 51 at 1-2.) Defendant R&L's Counsel advised that they are taking the lead in obtaining new mediation dates, and they will advise the Court of the mediation date as soon as it is confirmed. (Id. at 2.) Therefore, the Court ORDERS:

       1.   The order to show cause (Doc. Nos. 46, 50) is DISCHARGED; and

       2.   The Court sets a status conference for June 7, 2022 at 9:00 a.m., and the parties may request a continuance to accommodate the mediation date.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
